

XYNTEO EXCHANGE/INDIA2022, 01-02 APRIL 2019, MUMBAI

SBI joined the India2022 coalition in April 2019, and Chairman Rajnish Kumar met with the India2022 coalition’s Executive Committee comprising global and Indian leaders. Launched in 2017 and powered by Xynteo, India2022 is a purpose-driven global business coalition committed to creating a new model of growth in India by 2022, the 75th year of India’s independence.

The Chairman joined India2022’s annual gathering, the Xynteo Exchange/India2022, on 02 April 2019 at the Nehru Centre, Mumbai, which brings together leaders, capital, talent and ideas to accelerate commercial projects to advance a new growth model. Below are few highlights from the day.

Mr Rajnish Kumar speaks at the panel “An Evolving Model of Corporate Leadership”, highlighting how SBI was established in 1955 with the purpose of social banking and that idea is still at the core of the bank’s philosophy, with ongoing innovation to respond to current needs

Mr Rajnish Kumar spends time at the ‘Waste to Value’ studio, discussing problem statements and offering suggestions on the concepts that came out of studio discussions, and meets with Hindustan Unilever leadership team and MPCB Chairman, Shri Sudhir Shrivastava

Left to Right: Mr Lorenzo Simonelli, Baker Hugues, a GE company; Mr Sanjiv Mehta, Hindustan Unilever; Dr Osvald Bjelland, Xynteo; Mr Rajnish Kumar, State Bank of India; and Mrs Rajashree Birla, Aditya Birla Centre for Community Initiatives and Rural Development.

“Joining this initiative can help bring about change by converting dissatisfaction into positive action.” – Mr Rajnish Kumar, with the India2022 Executive Committee members at the conclusion of the Xynteo Exchange/India2022.
